Grand Knight's Report

By Ed Barrier, Grand Knight

Brother Knights:

Here is a spiritual thought from Fr. Rene Voillaume, founder of the Little Brothers and Sisters of the Gospel (a fraternity inspired by Charles De Foucauld: <http://www.charlesdefoucauld.org>):

"We are not giving ourselves only to an idea, however great; we are not giving ourselves only to the pursuit of a perfection, however true. We are giving ourselves to a Person, a living person who is God, and God who is our brother . . . because he is also a man. Our deepest aim is to live a real and total friendship with Jesus, in the midst of the world. It is for the sake of him, that we work and struggle. It is in order to meet the call of his love upon us that we are so often on our knees, at his feet, trying to learn to love him - to love him as our God, to love him as our Friend, to love him as our Brother. First and last, our effort of faith will be in the direction of a personal meeting, for we are certain that we cannot lose our way if we cling to the Lord with our whole being, if we place our lives in his hands - in the hands of him who is the Way itself, the Truth itself, the Life itself."
