Pray For Our President

President Bush and Vice-President Cheney at 2003
State of the Union Address.

Article courtesy of PGK Tom Cordero

First, an observation. Have you noticed a difference in the salute given by our military men and women as President Bush walks by? Most folks would not notice anything, but those of us who have served in the military see it right away.

Next time, Watch: When President Bush leaves his helicopter or Air Force One, the honor guards salute and face him as he disembarks, then turn their faces towards him as he passes by. They continue to salute his back as he walks away. This kind of salute has not been seen in the previous eight years, though it is a customary courtesy to the Commander-in-Chief. You see, soldiers aren't required to turn and face the President as they salute. They are not required to salute his back. They are only required to salute. They can remain face-forward the entire time, and that is what they did during the previous administration. Our soldiers were forced to obey his orders, but they were not forced to respect him. From their salutes, we can surmise that they did not.

Why is such respect afforded to President Bush? He doesn't even know how to bite his lower lip and not get teary-eyed whenever he speaks!

GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

By Brian Klinge, Grand Knight

With the beginning of LENT, this is an excellent time for each of us to reflect upon (our individual health, prosperity, sin and HIS forgiveness, and the FREEDOM we realize through CHRST) and recognize a new spiritual growth.

It is my understanding that our annual retreat at Mater Dolorosa in Sierra Madre is completely full and promises to a great experience.

We expect to have record turnouts for the Fish Fry's again this year, as the word has been getting out.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS TO HELP PREPARE THE MEALS AND CLEANUP. IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO BE INVOLVED IN HELPING, please call Bill Regis (967-8820) or myself (967-4753).

Society of Jesus

Ignatius of Loyola was born in 1491, the son of a privileged family, and grew up around the court of the Spanish King. He led a somewhat dissolute life. For adventure, he signed up as a soldier, and in 1521 was severely wounded in the leg. During his long recovery, he began to read the lives of Christ and the saints and decided there was more to life than revelry. By 1530 Ignatius had begun to gather a group of men wishing to lead a Christ-like life in the Holy Land. Living there proved impractical during those times of great upheaval. In 1534 they took vows of poverty and chastity and finally in 1540 were accepted as a religious order with the additional vow of obedience. The new Society of Jesus was to be at the service of the pope, who immediately sent them to propagate the faith among distant peoples and to defend the faith during the Reformation. The members of the Society of Jesus came to be known as “Jesuits”, originally a derogatory term. Changing the meaning of this term is a tribute to their great zeal in imitating Christ and effectiveness in spreading the gospel.

Jesuits emphasize training their will and mind during a period of formation lasting about 17 years. They are then capable of taking on diverse assignments such as preaching, administering the sacraments, taking care of parishes or collegiate churches, teaching in schools of every level, writing, and foreign missions. As missionaries, the Jesuits were pioneers of Christianity in China, Japan, India, Canada, and central and south America. The motto of the Society is Ad Maiorem Dei Gloria-For the Greater Glory of God.

Jesuits arrived in Santa Barbara in 1908 to serve the parish of Our Lady of Sorrows, which is the oldest parish in town as successor to the Presidio chapel. After the 1925 earthquake, the order built and ran the catholic high school and in 1929 built the present Our Lady of Sorrows church. At one time the Jesuit novitiate was in Montecito. Five members of the society now serve the parish and one other is attending UCSB in a doctoral program. Worldwide, there are about 22,000 members of the Society of Jesus, making it the largest religious order.

Financial Secretary's Report
16 January – 15 February 2003

Financial Secretary Bill McNamara

The council recorded expenses of $2,858.79 and income of $1,517.81 during the January 16, 2003 through February 15, 2003 period. In addition to normal expenses for office supplies, copying, and meeting refreshments, the 17 expense items included $797.85 for the state per capita tax; $380.27 in final payment for the Keep Christ in Christmas cards; $321.10 for printing the January and February bulletins; $109.39 for postage and copies (mostly for postage for the Religious/Clergy Appreciation dinner); $105 for repair of the Council's laser printer; $100 advance for food for the Blue/Gold cub scouts dinner; and $100 to Catholic Charities. During this period, the council also worked with Los Padres Chapter to prepare and mail the chapter's solicitation for Columbian Charities; related expenses are $455 in bulk mail advances and $259.80 for mail setup. The chapter will reimburse these costs, which are included in the above total expense.

Income was primarily from the 26 January breakfast at $453 and member payments of $982.

The council gained two members at the February 10th First Degree: Francisco Cabrera and Daniel Knauss. Since there were no losses during this period, membership increased to 200.

The attendance prize went undimmed at the February business meeting. The March business meeting attendance prize will be $55.

Praise Him

“ For, amen I say to you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you shall say to this mountain, Remove from hence hither, and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible to you.”

Matthew 17:19

Please continue to keep in your prayers those members of the Knights and their loved ones who are physically ill. Of those recently afflicted, please pray for brother Nacho Ramirez, who is under the care of a doctor, Fritz Cahill, who is recovering from recent surgery, Joe Ponce's grandmother, and Jessie's mother Angie, who was recently hospitalized again, Julia Wasil, wife of brother Jim, and the mother of PGK Frank Castello, who has been suffering from heart ailments.

Also please pray for the repose of the souls of Ernestine Sanchez, the sister in law of PGK Felix Sanchez, and for Francis Regis, beloved wife of brother Bill Regis.

In addition, continued prayers are requested for those who are ill: the continued recovery of Joe Darga; Leo Stark; Barbara Vogel, mother of John Vogel, who is suffering from Alzheimer's, Delores Nungaray, wife of Teo Nungaray; Eleanor Cahill, wife of Fritz Cahill. In addition, Camille Moynihan, who is recovering from hip surgery.

Others on our sick list needing prayers are, Chuck Burke, Nancy Herrera, Fred Cota, Jim Abels; Anne Marie McBeth, daughter of brother knight Max Keller; Frank Donohoe's oldest son; Jill Lowery daughter of Ray Tafelski; Eleanor Richards Ellen Velasco, granddaughter of Bruce Velasco Jack Ward's wife Betty; Christopher Woodall, brother-in-law of Bill Regis; Mel Hooser, in-law of Mike Donovan and of Robert Clarke, and Eileen Wenger, sister-in-law of Ralph Wengler.

FEBRUARY FAMILY OF THE MONTH

Robert and Laura Clarke

Written by Brian Klinge, Grand Knight

For this month, I have chosen another very supportive family, fellow Knight and His Lady, Robert and Laura Clarke. They are another great example of the kind of family we are proud to have as active members of our Council.

Robert is presently a Third Degree member, having joined in November 2000 and becoming a Third Degree in September 2002. PGK Michael Donovan proposed Robert for membership.

Both Robert and Laura have been a positive influence in our Council, having taken on the responsibility of Youth Director for our Council and directed the Annual Free Throw Contest at Goleta Boys and Girls Club held on January 4, culminating with an interesting article in our February Knightline

Robert, Laura and their two children, Sarah and Kyle (both of whom attend St. Raphael's School) participated in this entertaining and fun event.

Both Robert and Laura are graduates of local high schools: Santa Barbara High and Dos Pueblos.

Fortunately for us, they both choose to continue their active participation with local youth. Thank you for your continued dedication to our youth!

We are blessed to have them in our Council. We are proud to name them as our March Family of the Month.

MARCH KNIGHT OF THE MONTH

Hal Thompson

Written by Brian Klinge, Grand Knight

It is my privilege to acknowledge another active member of our Council, SIR KNIGHT HAL THOMPSON.

Hal joined the Knight's in May 1996, rose to the Third Degree by the end of 1996, and became a member of the Fourth Degree in October 1998. PGK Bernie Jochum proposed him for membership.

In the past, Hal has faithfully served our Council as Recorder and is currently the Captain of the Fourth Degree, our patriotic branch. He is a member of the Color Guard. (Next year he will be the Faithful Navigator of the Fourth Degree).

He has regularly attends all scheduled Business meetings and helps in whatever way he can. He has further volunteered with our Council's blood drives, calendar distribution, and visiting and chauffeuring widows.

Hal lived in Santa Maria at the same time I was being held hostage there; his children attended St. Joseph's High School. It is my good fortune that I have finally met this ife, gentle individual. I have found Hal to very generous to all people who need his time and attention.

He is active in our Parish and is a long-time Eucharistic Minister, has served on the Parish Council and participates with the Parish Sociable Seniors

It is my privilege to recognize Hal Thompson as our March KNIGHT OF THE MONTH.

Pray For Our President

President Bush greeting local law enforcement

The following incident from Major General Van Antwerp may give us an insight. Gen. Antwerp is president of the Officers' Christian Fellowship. He lost nearly all his staff when the Pentagon was attacked Sept. 11. His executive officer LTC Brian Birdwell was badly burned and in the hospital when President Bush visited him. Our President spent time and prayed with Brian. As he was getting ready to leave, he went to the foot of Brian's bed and saluted. He held his salute until Brian was able to raise his burned and bandaged arm, ever so slowly, in return. The Commander-in-Chief almost never initiates a salute, except in the case of a Congressional Medal of Honor winner. The injured soldier did not have to return the salute. But he did, out of respect to his President ...a Soldiers' President.

Congressman JC Watts (R. Oklahoma) said, 'Character is doing the right thing when nobody is looking,' (My favorite quote of all time.) The nation and world learned some of what our last President did when nobody was looking. That President has been disbarred, the worst disgrace (other than imprisonment) to a lawyer. CNN will have a difficult time shining his or his wife's tarnished images. In this time of war and danger, I am so grateful to have a President whom the soldiers salute -- fully.

On Special Report with Brit Hume, at the close of the show when they normally would have some funny video clip, they showed President Bush and the First Lady leaving for Camp David for the weekend. As the video starts, the First Lady is leading the way into the helicopter with the spaniel dog on the leash, and the president is right behind her with the Scotty on leash. As the First Lady entered the chopper, the Marine at the gangway saluted and held his salute. The Scottie, the president was walking, decided it wanted to sit right when he got to the steps. The president pulled on its leash, but the stubborn Scottie persisted in sitting. The president bent down, scooped up the pooch, and entered Marine One. After he entered, the Marine cut his salute and returned to the position of attention. Moments later the president reemerged from the helicopter and out onto the steps. The Marine was standing at attention, head and eyes straight ahead. The President leaned over and tapped him on the left arm. The startled Marine turned his body toward the president and received his president's returned salute!

I was so impressed by this true act of respect for our military people by our President! He really does get it. Most any other person of his stature would have just continued his journey, disregarding the neglected return salute. Not George W. Bush. He has earned the respect of the military community, not simply expecting it -- as most have and would.

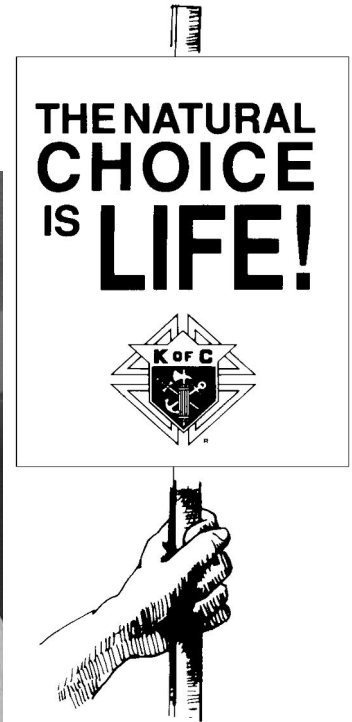

President George W. Bush...the man who admitted to having a drinking problem in younger years, and whose happy-go-lucky lifestyle led him to mediocre grades in college and an ill-fated oil venture; who mangled syntax, and whose speaking missteps became known as Bushisms. He came within a hair's breadth of losing the election in November.

GOSPEL OF LIFE To Condemn or to Convict

By Robert and Cecilia Marks

While in my late teens, I read an account of a daughter of a well known actor informing her father of her conversion to Catholicism. His response was, "Why would you wish to take on all that additional baggage?" In my ignorance I could not understand his question. Having been a cradle Catholic, I loved the Church and never saw the following of its rubrics as a burden. What was this "baggage" this father was referring to? Now in my fifties I understand the actor's comment.

Imagine God giving you an envelope with the following words written on it: "Mission Impossible." As you open the envelope and remove the neatly folded paper and you read: "You did not choose Me, it is I who chose you."--John 15:16 I AM calling you to a lifetime mission. If you accept this mission, I will never leave you or disavow you. My Son preceded you so He will be your example, your Way, to carry out this mission--rely on Him for He is "Faithful and Trustworthy." Should you err, just ask for My forgiveness and I will always grant this to you. For added measure, I will give you the Bread of Life to sustain you and to give you courage. I hope you accept this invitation for no one else can do this mission exactly as you can.....Love, Your Father"

What does this have to do with abortion? Each of us has a mission in life. We are mothers and fathers, teachers and preachers, doctors and lawyers, politicians and gardeners. As a Catholic we are called to uphold the standard of Christ; to hold steadfast to the Gospel even when others are not.

The American Life League has launched the "Crusade for the Defense of our Catholic Church." Its goal is to convict publicly those Catholic politicians who support and/or advocate abortion. Pope John Paul II teaches in the Gospel of Life, #58:

"The moral gravity of procured abortion is apparent in all its truth if we recognize that we are dealing with murder..."

Canon Law 915 states:

"Those who have been excommunicated or interdicted after the imposition or the declaration of a penalty as well as others who obstinately persist in manifest grave sin are not to be admitted to Communion."

The following governor and senators have run for office claiming to be Catholics: Gov. Grey Davis (California), Christopher J. Dodd (Conn.), Tom Harkin (Iowa) Thomas Daschle (S. Dakota.), Susan M. Collins(Maine), Barbara A. Mikulski (Maryland), Edward M. Kennedy (Mass.), John F. Kerry (Mass.), Patrick Leahy(Vermont), Patty Murray (Washington), Mary Landrieu (Louisiana), Joseph R. Biden (Delaware) and Maria Cantwell (Washington). Pray for those who do not value life.

Pray For Our President

President Bush with his Homeland Security Team

Bush named Jesus Christ as Lord of his life on public TV. Not an oblique reference to being 'born-again' or having a 'life change. He actually said the un-PC-like phrase, 'Jesus Christ!'

On September 11, he was thrust into a position only known by the likes of Roosevelt, Churchill, Lincoln, and Washington. The weight of the world was on his shoulders, and the responsibility of a generation was on his soul. So President George W. Bush walked to his seat at the front of the National Cathedral just three days after two of the most impressive symbols of American capitalism and prosperity virtually evaporated. When the history of this time is written, it will be acknowledged by friend and foe alike that President George W. Bush came of age in that cathedral and lifted a nation off its knees. In what was one of the most impressive exhibitions of self-control in presidential history, President George W. Bush was able to deliver his remarks without losing his resolve, focus, or confidence. God's hand, which guided him through that sliver-thin election, now rested fully on him. As he walked back to his seat, the camera angle was appropriate. He was virtually alone in the scene, alone in that massive place with God, just him and the Lord. Back at his seat, George H. Bush reached over and took his son's hand. In that gesture his father seemed to say, 'I wish I could do this for you son, but I can't. You have to do this on your own.' President George W. Bush squeezed back and gave him a look of peace that said, 'I don't have to do it alone, Dad. I've got Help.'

What a blessing to have a professing Christian as President. Please take a moment after you read this to 'pray for him.' He truly does have the weight of the world on his shoulders. Pray that God will sustain him and give him wisdom and discernment in his decisions.

Pray for his protection and that of his family. And after you have prayed, send this to everyone on your e-mail list. Our President needs Christians, Democrats and Republicans alike, to be praying for him. As this makes the e-mail rounds, eventually there could literally be millions of people praying for him, and for our Great Country.
