Grand Knight's Report

VIVAT JESUS

Recommended reading: A Civilization of Love: What Every Catholic Can Do to Transform the World by Supreme Knight Carl Anderson. Here is a sampling:

There is an increasing bicultural rift that has been by the continuing national debate over immigration. But I would like to suggest that the more fundamental rift is different from what Huntington describe. It is not a division between Anglo and Hispanic, English and Spanish, North and South, Protestant and Catholic. While these cleavages can not be ignored, they are far less central than another divide that cuts across all these categories and splits society much more deeply, in part because it splits individuals more deeply. It is the division between what Pope John Paul II has called Culture of Life and Culture of Death.

Another interesting passage:

What Muslims often reject in this Western mindset is not a different religion but the apparent absence of religious values. Samuel Huntington writes, "In Muslim eyes Western secularity, irreligiosity, and hence immorality are worse evils than Western Christianity...In the Cold War the West labeled its opponents Godless communism; in the post- Cold War conflict of civilization Muslims see their opponents as the Godless West."

Happy 49th Birthday on Sept. 30th Daniel Paul Knauss

Daniel Paul Knauss was born on September 30, 1964 in Compton, CA. Dan's parents, Donald and Loretta Knauss, were proud of all their 6 children: Dan, Don, Tom, Keith, Kathy and Lori.

The family moved to Santa Barbara in 1965. Dan attended El Camino Grade School, San Marcos High School, SBCC, LA Pierce College and Cal State Northridge.

Jacqueline Valencia, Dan's wife, is a Santa Barbara native, born on Jan. 25, 1970. Dan & Jackie first met in the same Magnolia Shopping Center where they worked next door to each other. They were married on Oct. 17, 1992 at St. Raphael's Church with Msgr. Stephen Noel Downes the celebrant.

They are proud parents of sons Jacob, 18 and Jonathon, 17. The family have been St. Raphael parishioners since 1966. Dan described the best thing about being a parishioner and a Knights of Columbus member as "Great community involvement and friendships." Dan acknowledged, "Father Downes is extra-special to me because he married Jackie and me. Also Father Bruce Correio is special because he has done such a great job under some trying circumstances."

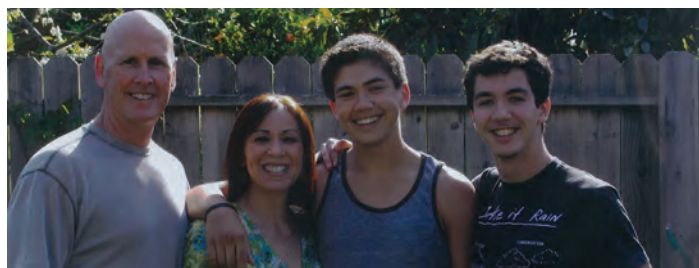

For the past 25-years Dan has been the owner of Goleta Valley Optical in the Magnolia Shopping Center. His mother, Loretta, who was an active parishioner for many groups, ran the business for years before passing away in 2001.

Dan joined the Knights on February 10, 2003 with Brian Klinge his sponsor. Prior to becoming Grand Knight for the 2007-08 Columbian year, he held the positions of Recorder in 2005-06, Chancellor 2006-07 and Deputy Grand Knight 2007-08. Dan pointed out, "Council 5300 has a tradition of doing many activities very successfully. He added, "The best thing about being a Knight is that I have ample opportunity to do charitable things with others who seek the same opportunity."

Besides her motherhood responsibilities, Jackie is a considerable help to Dan's business. Jackie regularly puts in nine and ten hour days. Over the years she has been involved with the boys' schools and has been a past PTA President.

50 Years of Service and Dedication

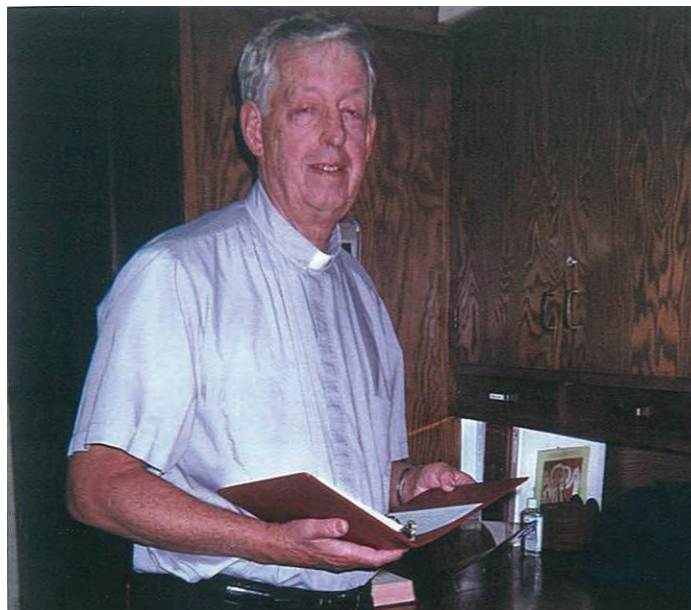

Rev. Frank Colborn's Golden Anniversary

Rev. Frank Colborn, retired priest who has been helping to celebrate Masses at St. Raphael Church since July 2007, was among this year's golden jubilarian priests to be honored during the March 25 Chrism Mass at Our Lady Queen of Angels Cathedral with Archbishop Jose Gomez presiding.

Father Colborn was born in Berkeley on July 1, 1938 and is the only member of St. John's class ordained in Rome (Dec. 18, 1963). He served as Associate Pastor at St. Ignatius, L.A., (1964), St. Philip the Apostle, Pasadena (1965-67), Graduate House of Studies, Rome (1967-69), St. Alphonsus, East L.A. (1974-85, and as Pastor for six years at Holy Name of Jesus, L.A. (1993-99), and eight years at St. Andrew, Pasadena (1999-2007).

In 1969 Father Colborn received his STD degree in Rome from the Gregorian University and taught moral theology at St. John's for 10 years. For several years, 1986-93, he held the post of Chaplain at the Newman Center for the Claremont colleges. Formerly Vicar Forane (Dean) for Deanery 10, he retired in 2007 and lives in Santa Barbara.

Father knew at an early age that he wanted to pursue a vocation to religious life and the priesthood. He professed his first vows in 1952 and was ordained in Rome by the Auxiliary Bishop of Rome. His first Mass was celebrated at the Chapel of Catacombs of Priscilla in Rome on Dec.19, 1963.

For readers who missed reading the interesting and detailed story on Father Colborn in the November 2009 Knightline, a copy will be sent to you via internet from Joe T. Kovach.

Pro-life Report for September 2013

By John Kirk

On Saturday 17 August at Saint Marks Church in IV, Kathleen Domingo of the Archdiocese of LA Office of Life, Justice and Peace visited with pro-life leaders in the local community from Oxnard to Santa Maria. Among the items discussed was a pro-life poster program that is being initiated in some schools. It is a set of nine posters depicting the development of the child inside the mother's womb during each month of the child's development. The students can monitor and follow the child's progress. Such a program is being planned for Saint Raphael's school with the enthusiastic support of the school principal. This poster program will be shown at the next Council meeting on 9 September.

The next pro-life vigil at Planned Parenthood on Garden Street in Santa Barbara will be on Sunday 8 September at 3 PM. It lasts about 40-minutes. Please consider joining with your fellow Knights and others in supporting this endeavor. Drop by and see how this peaceful, prayerful and non-confrontational celebration of life unfolds.

Father James Seiwert, New Associate, Assisting Pastor Bruce Correio in

Parish-- Father James Seiwert's arrival in July has been a blessing for Pastor Bruce Correio since the relocation in July of Father Armando Ibanez to St. Finbar in Burbank and Father Arthur Najera to San Roque. Also when Father Bruce was on vacation in August, that left Fr. Seiwert with needed assistance from Paulist Father John Collins, C.S.P. from New York City and Father Frank Colburn, retired but helping too.

Born in Wichita, Kansas in 1971, his parents, Paul and Mary also have a daughter and another son. Father stated, "My initial vocation to the priesthood came about the first time I served Mass." He would enter the seminary at age 18. Presiding at his ordination on May 2, 2009 in San Antonio, Texas was Archbishop Jose Gomez, now the head of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

In his ordination class were nine classmates, all serving now in San Antonio.

Father's favorite scriptural passage in the Bible is "Quid retribuam Domino pro omnibus, quae retribuit unhi. Calicem salutaris accipiam et nomen Domini invocabo." Translated it reads:

*How can I repay the LORD for all the great good done for me?
I will raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD.*

—Psalm 116:12-13

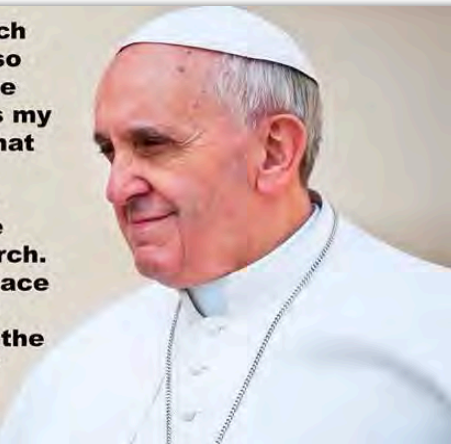

He doesn't follow sports but prefers to play sports rather than watch them live or on TV. Hopefully in the months ahead another story will spotlight Father's priestly experiences and other interesting pieces of information on his personal background.

Welcome and Honor Our Newly Ordained Priests—

The Serra Club invites you to an event to honor our newly ordained priests. One of the newly ordained, Father Cesar Magallon has been assigned to Our Lady of Guadalupe here in Santa Barbara. It will be held in the Hilton Garden Inn in Oxnard/Camarillo on September 18, 2013 at 11 am for social hour and 12 Noon lunch. Cost is $40. We will be honored with the presence of Archbishop Gomez and many religious. For reservations, email; ordinati2013@gmail.com or phone (805) 682-5725.

"I appeal strongly for peace, an appeal which arises from the deep within me. There are so many conflicts in this world which cause me great suffering and worry, but in these days my heart is deeply wounded in particular by what is happening in Syria and anguished by the dramatic developments which are looming. For this reason, brothers and sisters, I have decided to call for a vigil for the whole Church. It will be "a day of fasting and prayer for peace in Syria, in the Middle East, and throughout world." The vigil will take place on Sept. 7, the vigil of the birth of Mary, Queen of Peace. "

"Teacher, where do you stay?"

By Bob & Cecilia Marks

After the baptism of Jesus, the disciples of John the Baptist see Jesus walking down the road and begin to follow Him. Jesus notices them, so He turns and asks, "What are you looking for?" They reply "Teacher, where do you stay?" Jesus then invites them to "Come and see." So they went to see where he lodged and stayed with Jesus. John 1:31-39

The most effective way to evangelize is to show the contagious joy of knowing Jesus Christ in our daily life. The saying, "actions speak louder than words" is very true in living the life of a Catholic. How do we conduct ourselves in work, during times of play, in suffering trials and in those times we think no one is watching? We, too, invite others to "come and see" where we live on a daily basis by witnessing with our very lives.

On Sunday, September 29th, St. Raphael Parish will be hosting our annual Parish Festival. For many years the Ministry Fair has been a part of this annual celebration by exhibiting the enormous work offered by many in our Parish.

By definition, ministry 1. a. The act of serving; ministrations. b. One that serves as a means; an instrumentality. In the true Biblical sense ministry is personal for it does not exist detached and independent of the person (or people) ministering and receiving the ministry. It is interpersonal. True ministry is the communi-cation (in word and deed) of the Gospel message. And finally, ministry is hard work.

We invite you to "come and see" where a vast majority of our Church lives. We hope, too, that many more will follow us in the Lord's work.

"You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned?... You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father." -Matthew 5 13:16

Chris Arnoult, New Membership Director, Has 'Big Issue' Plans for Council 5300

By Joe T. Kovach, KC member since 1996

Frances Christopher Arnoult, Past Grand Knight in 2005-06, has assumed the important position of Membership Director for Goleta Knights of Columbus Council 5300. Known by everyone as Chris, he joined the Knights on September 11, 2000 with PGK Bernie Jochum, and PGK Don Aubrey, his sponsors.

The native of Fairfield, Ohio, has held also these other important Council 5300 positions: Essay Contest Chairperson, Lecturer, Chancellor, Advocate, Deputy Grand Knight and Financial Secretary from 2009-13.

One of several things Chris would like to see Council 5300 do is become more involved with new members and membership growth. Arnoult stated, "Unfortunately the Council median age has been getting older and as us 'ole timers' get up there in age we don't have the stamina to do all the work that we used to do." He continued, "So new and hopefully younger (at least in heart) members can be recruited. These men are a necessity for the Council's well-being, but also because we want other Catholic men to share in the brotherhood and experience the satisfaction of helping others and exemplifying being a Catholic Christian." Total membership currently stands at 191 Knights: 100 Associate, 77 Insurance, 13 Inactive, 4 Honoray, 64 Honorary Life and 2 Disability.

Chris was born on July 10, 1945 to John and Marie Arnoult in the military hospital at Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio. My father was in the Army Air Corps at the time. Chris has a sister Elizabeth and a younger brother John.

After eleven days at home filled with family love, Joseph (83) passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 17, 2013. He was the first born of German immigrants at the St. Francis Hospital in Santa Barbara, on August 8, 1930. Joe attended Goleta Union School, La Cumbre Junior High School, and graduated from Santa Barbara High School in 1948.

At sixteen, he began his career in the grocery business. Joe was very proud of the sixty years spent at Crismon's Market and Santa Cruz Market on Hollister Avenue in Goleta. He enjoyed his working staff and friendships in the community.

Joe married his beloved Shirley Marie Chard in 1957 at Santa Barbara Mission. They shared 56 years together raising a family, traveling to their favorite Hawaiian Islands, attending family dinners every Sunday for years, and surviving four life threatening experiences. He loved his family and instilled in them family values, discipline, strong work ethic, and love for God. Joe's main hobby was enjoying his cars, a '41 Pontiac, a 1952 Mercury Monterrey, and two Rancheros. Joe was a member of the Santa Barbara Acceleration Association of Goleta, the first drag racing organization in the world. He was the "Starter" for the drag races held on the Santa Barbara Airport Grounds. His cultivating of beautiful roses was his second hobby followed by working word searches.

Joe donated generously to charitable and religious organizations. He was a devout member of St. Raphael Church, participating as an usher, Eucharistic minister, and Sacristan for the Mass with Jess Martinez. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus (1684) for 63 years.

Joe was preceded in death by his parents Paul and Emma Kunze, and infant son, Dale. He is survived by his wife, Shirley, daughter Diana (Michael) Mina, sons, Daryl (Sherri) and Dean (Annette) Kunze, grandchildren, Denise Farmer (Jordan), Dominick Kunze (Kristen), Dustin Kunze, Nicholas Mina, Cole, Aaron, Gabriel, and Isabella Kunze, and step-grandchildren Jake and Tyler Forshey, great granddaughters Emma Nicole Kunze and Julia Elise Farmer. Joe is survived by his sister, Margaret Harris, brothers Herbert (Ginny) and John (Nancy) Kunze, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Joseph could answer to husband, Dad, Pops, Pompa, Papa, Grandpa, Great Grandpa and "Mayor." He had integrity, patience, honor, a sense of humor and was a good listener.

A rosary is scheduled on Wednesday, August 28th, at 7 p.m., and the funeral mass on Thursday, August 29th, at 10 a.m., both at St. Raphael Church in Goleta.

The Kunze Family extends a sincere thank you for the friendship and exemplary care of Dr. Robert S. Wright, Dr. Claudio Bonometti, and Dr. Paul S. Tierstein and his team at Scripps Hospital in La Jolla, CA. The nurses at Hospice who supported Joe's home care were appreciated.

Remembrances may be made to St. Vincent de Paul Society at St. Raphael's, and Catholic Charities.

After graduation from Maine-Endwell Sr. High in 1963 in Endwell, NY, Chris enrolled at University of Colorado, Boulder and earned his BSEE Degree in 1968. It was while at the university when Chris met Mary Alice Lindsay (native of Manhattan Beach, CA) at a party of mutual Norwegian friends-skiers. They were married on February 25, 1972 in Boulder by Father Charles Forsyth at St. Thomas Aquinas Newman Center Parish.

They are proud parents of three grown children and five grandchildren. Son Matthew and his wife Beth have two children, Katy 5 and Jacob 3. Son Michael and his wife Crystal have three children, Liam 5, Brady 3 and Colton, age 3 months. Daughter Sarah is a recent CPSLO graduate working at UCSB for Intervarsity Christian Fellowship.

Chris emphasized, "The best thing I like about Knights of Columbus Council 5300 is that they have a stated goal of doing charitable works and promulgating the Catholic Christian ethic by example and good works. Belonging to an organization that performs these charitable actions at a local level, as well as at State and Supreme National level gives me a meaningful way of doing "payback" for all the benefits I have enjoyed in my life."

Arnoult added, "Also, it is beneficial for one's faith to belong to a Catholic men's organization where we can meet fellow Catholics, work together and share common objectives."

One re-occurring memory that stands out about KofC: "For our fund raising events, dinners, picnics, etc., always sweating bullets in the last days before the event and worrying: will enough people come? What if too many people show at the last minute? Did the sound system get fixed? Are there enough table clothes, napkins, etc.? Oh, well."

Arnoult referenced the Council's successes in its financial operations. "The Council has the potential of doing 'big issue' philanthropy whereby we can commit to multi-year funding of selected charitable organizations so the donation will have a significant impact for the recipient. We have a history of doing this. He added, "For 10 years from 1995-2005 the Council donated $10,000/year to St. Raphael Church for its expansion of the Parish Hall and Multi-purpose Building." Recently the Council has committed to fund $1,000/year to Rachel's Vineyard Italy, a post-abortion Catholic counseling and re-entry to the Faith. Also they are considering funding scholarships to Bishop Diego High School for Catholic students from St. Raphael and St. Mark's.

Chris believes, "Doing the 'big issue' philanthropies will help build recognition for the Knights in the community and develop comradery for our members as we work together to achieve a common goal."

Two priests, Father Bruce Correio and Father John Love, are very special to the Arnoults. "Pastor Bruce is always so cheerful and he listens to you without judgment," stated Chris. He pointed out that Father Love (St. Mark's) is so dedicated, full of zeal and willing to listen to your problems."

Chris' other community involvement revolves around the Boy Scouts of America. He was Assistant Scout Master 36 for four years, Scout Master for three years. He is Wood Badge trained, was on staff for Adult Scout Leader training and on staff to Wood Badge training numerous years.

Favorite hobbies include: motorcycle riding and off-road racing; hiking, backpacking and any outdoor activity that looks like fun; ocean swimming at Leadbetter Beach.

Regarding travels Chris and Mary have made, they went to Europe just after they were married, have been with family on many camping trips, and were tourists in Vancouver B.C., Seattle and took an Alaskan inland passage cruise. They would like to do some exploration of the USA and visit London, Britain.
