Grand Knight's Report

From Jim Bradbury, Our Grand Knight

Wishing All of You a Wonderful And Joyful Christmas

This morning as I was having my cup of coffee, looking at my loving wife, when I had the thought that I was sitting with an angel. God has given me the most beautiful gift anyone could have, the gift of love. Love to give and to receive. This is the most powerful gift anyone could have. Then it hit me that God has given this gift to all of us who will receive his love.

So as we go through this holiday season, please let us not get caught up in the hustle and bustle of all the pressures of the season. Let us stop and pray. Let us remember that in this season of love, God gave us the greatest gift of all, his son Jesus Christ who is love. Let us pass this gift of love to the people that have touched our lives now, and in our past. Call someone you haven't seen or talked to this year to just let them know you were thinking of them. Make time for others.

At this time I would like to wish all of you a wonderful and joyful Christmas.

In the love of Christ.

Vivat Jesus,

Jim Bradbury

Troop 105 and Cub Pack 105 Announce Christmas Tree Lot Sales November 29 thru December 20

By Bro. Ed Leicht

Boy Scout Troop 105 and Cub Pack 105, both of which are chartered by Goleta Council 5300, announce that their Annual Christmas Tree Lot opens on Saturday November 29.

The tree lot is organized by Brother Ed Leicht and Brother Tim Hogan, along with active parishioners Mr. Robert Zaida, Mr. Dan Williams, Mr. Robert Frey, and Mr. Teo Gonzalez. Sales will continue through Saturday, December 20 or until they run out of trees!

Parishioners are always very supportive of this annual fundraiser, and the Scouts are hoping for a busy season this year, as there are only three weeks to sell all the trees. The Scouts will offer tree delivery and state-certified fire retardant at nominal charges. Local businesses especially appreciate the fire retardant service, so if your place of work is not displaying a tree out of fire concern please send them to the Troop 105 tree lot. Also for sale are wreaths, tree preservative, and tree disposal bags.

Discount coupons are printed in the Church bulletin at St. Raphael and in the Knightline. Copies of coupons are accepted so feel free to hand them out to your friends, too.

For more information on the Scout Tree Lot, please contact Brother Ed Leicht via email: treelot@goleta105.com. For more information on the activities of Troop 105 (Scoutmaster is Brother Glenn Schiferl) or Cub Pack 105, visit their website www.goleta105.com.

Let's support our Brother Knights first by purchasing our trees and wreaths at their tree lot and second by telling our friends, coworkers, and local business owners!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The above Nativity scene featured each year in the Church was built by the late Sam Catherina in 1961. Sam was building a new home for Mary and Dan Grant (County Supervisor) and the Grants donated the shakes and other lumber for this special Church addition. Al and Henry Borgaro, native Goletans and very active parishioners, did all the work each year in setting up the beautiful manger with the many statues with assistance from other parishioners. For years the complete Christmas Manger was stored at Henry and Georgia Borgaro's home. Al stated, "The late Emma Kunze gave us the pine greens for many years and son Herb has supplied the hay for the manger since the beginning. Pastor Edward Hempfling originally wanted a full manger setting with all the animals and other statues, but space prevented that in 1961 in the old church. Today little children leave personal messages to Jesus at the manger. The beautiful setting will remain in the Church from December 15 through Sunday, January 11 according to Al. Special thanks go to Al and his helpers who do this special work of beauty each Christmas season.
